world of the One State, every hour is scheduled, every thought accounted for, and every citizen known only by a number. This is one of the earliest and most heavily censored dystopian novels to be written. It is thought-provoking, yet thrilling. I highly recommend it. A former Bolshevik wrote the first dystopian novel "before Orwell, before Huxley" and it predicted everything: AI replacing humans. The grand-daddy of all dystopias that couldn't be published in the USSR until 1988! Extremely well-written and full of interesting details.
